The Wizard Within

Be The Eye of the Storm

Since our last newsletter in May, Thresa and I have attended two highly experiential camps that were quite simply the most amazing transformational weeks of our lives. The first was the Peak Potentials Enlightened Warrior Camp and the second was Wizard Camp. In warrior camp we experienced how to do what is hard, act without fear, and succeed in spite of anything. Five weeks later in wizard camp we experienced the true magic of living in the wizard and succeeding with elegance and joy. Needless to say, the objective is to live in the wizard but be ready to transform into the warrior when the need arises.

One of the foundational principles of living in the wizard is to be the eye of the storm. In other words, don't let the chaos and confusion around you dictate your way of being or the reality you create. Although this may seem simple when you are calm and centered, it can be a challenge at first when all is panic, fear, and chaos around you. But, with practice and experience, being the eye of the storm will absolutely change the way you create your life.

If you want to learn more "Living in the Wizard" will be the main topic of our August 23rd Body, Mind, & Spirit meeting.
